About Me

Dedicated and innovative Software Engineer with a passion for creating efficient and scalable solutions. Experienced in full-stack development and proficient in multiple programming languages, I strive to deliver high-quality code that meets business objectives while adhering to best practices and industry standards

Professional Experience

Suns Skill Technology
2023 – Present

- Seasoned full-stack developer with specialized proficiency in React.js, adeptly delivering comprehensive web applications that encompass both front-end and back-end development.
- I worked on a live Project as a React Developer.
- Successfully implemented front-end development strategies using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React.js, resulting in engaging and dynamic websites that meet client requirements.
- Implemented a structured approach to website development, proficiently transforming mockup designs into interactive web solutions using HTML, JavaScript, AJAX, and JSON coding, resulting in seamless user experiences.
- Effectively managed and addressed technical issues and user troubleshooting requests, employing strong problem-solving skills to swiftly resolve user problems and ensure seamless operations.

Self-employed
2022

- Collaborated with a local software house on an E-commerce website project, focusing on the development of its front-end components.
